

Clive Lewis, Managing Director, Achieving the Difference

Clive will be joining our panel that will signpost you to the best sources of data and knowledge on aerospace market opportunities. Achieving the Difference is an established advisory practice that helps large and medium size organisations make strategic decisions with confidence and achieve clear competitive advantage. This always requires market insight. ADS has trusted Achieving the Difference to provide the market insight for its frequent Global Aerospace Outlooks since 2009 and its AAM Market Outlook in 2021.
