

Paul Blunden
Director International Military Sustainment
Moog Aircraft Group

Paul has over 30 years of experience within the Aerospace Sector covering multiple roles in Contracts, Program Management, Sales and Global Sustainment.

Paul began his Aerospace career with Dowty Boulton Paul Limited in 1986 holding roles of increasing responsibility within the Commercial and Military Aftermarket business with Dowty, Smiths Aerospace, GE Aviation and now Moog Aircraft Group. For the last seven years Paul has held the role of Director, International Military Sustainment for Moog Aircraft Group which brings with it responsibility for supporting the aftermarket business across the three main Aircraft Group sites in East Aurora (HQ), Torrance and Wolverhampton.

Paul holds a master's degree in business management from the University of Wolverhampton.